OPA Auditors Attend 35th Annual ALGA Conference

Hagåtña, Guam – Accountability Auditors Maria Thyrsa Bagana, Mariella Cruz, and Kayleen Concepcion attended the 35th Annual Association of Local Government Auditors (ALGA) Conference in Baltimore, Maryland. The conference theme, “Bmore ALGA,” is a nod to the conference’s host city of Baltimore and the mission of local government auditors to help organizations be more to the public served.

ALGA is a professional organization committed to supporting and improving local government auditing through advocacy, collaboration, education, and training while upholding the highest standards of professional ethics.

All three auditors were present through the pre-conference, main conference, and post-conference workshops from May 7-10, 2023. The conference offered sessions on a variety of key topics such as governmental auditing; communications; information technology; personnel/human resources; behavioral ethics; and business management and organization.
