The Association of Pacific Islands Public Auditors makes a $1,000 donation to American Red Cross for Saipan Relief Efforts

August 13, 2015

At the closing dinner of the 26th Annual Association of Pacific Islands Public Auditors (APIPA) conference held on August 7, 2015 at the Sheraton Laguna Guam Resort, Guam Public Auditor Doris Flores Brooks presented CNMI Public Auditor Michael Pai a check in the amount of $1,000 to be donated to the American Red Cross on behalf of the APIPA Principals for Saipan relief efforts due to Typhoon Soudelor.

“All of us as Pacific Islanders know the devastation that a typhoon can cause. We’ve gone through storms as bad and worse,” Public Auditor Doris Flores Brooks said. “For that reason it was not hard for us to decide that APIPA should help the people of Saipan.”

APIPA Principals consists of Public Auditors from Guam, American Samoa, Chuuk, CNMI, FSM National, Marshall Islands, Palau, Kosrae, Pohnpei State, Yap, U.S. Virgin Islands, and Samoa.
